

FocalScope Diagram

Working with FocalScope reports

There are three primary phases to generating a FocalScope report: (a) specifying the report type and filtering, (b) creating a custom template for the raw report data, and (c) scheduling delivery of the finalized report. FocalScope reports are completely customizable and template driven, and while the freedom to create and modify reports may appear daunting at first, the reward is a perfect representation of the statistics that are meaningful to you.

